Futu Announces Resignation of Eric Chi Zhang from the Board of Directors

HONG KONG, Sept. 14, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Futu Holdings Limited ("Futu" or the "Company") (Nasdaq: FUTU), a leading tech-driven online brokerage and wealth management platform in China, today announced that Mr. Eric Chi Zhang, a director of the Company, has resigned from the board of directors of the Company due to personal reasons, effective September 14, 2021. Mr. Zhang's resignation did not result from any disagreement with the Company.

Mr. Leaf Hua Li, Futu's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, commented: "On behalf of the board of directors and management team, I would like to thank Mr. Zhang for his valuable services and contributions to the Company and we wish him the best in his future endeavors."

About Futu Holdings Limited

Futu Holdings Limited (Nasdaq: FUTU) is an advanced technology company transforming the investing experience by offering a fully digitized brokerage and wealth management platform. The Company primarily serves the emerging affluent population, pursuing a massive opportunity to facilitate a once-in-a-generation shift in the wealth management industry and build a digital gateway into broader financial services. The Company provides investing services through its proprietary digital platform, Futubull and moomoo, each a highly integrated application accessible through any mobile device, tablet or desktop. The Company's primary fee-generating services include trade execution and margin financing which allow its clients to trade securities, such as stocks, warrants, options, futures and exchange-traded funds, or ETFs, across different markets. Futu has also embedded social media tools to create a network centered around its users and provide connectivity to users, investors, companies, analysts, media and key opinion leaders.
